School Notes.

Mr. Darling visited the Island Pond schools this week.

Some of the grades are preparing appropriate exercises for Lincoln's birthday.

Friday evening, Feb. 11, the Camp-fire Girls hold their first social in the high school. The entertainment is in the form of a living magazine, "The Fliterary Fligest," consisting of advertisements, stories, cartoons, etc. After the program there will be a promenade and candy sale.

At the meeting of The Random Improvement Club last Thursday, the following program was carried out:—Response to the roll call by a short account of some famous man or woman; papers on "Some Famous Women of the Past," Merle Currier; "Famous Women of Today," Vera Humphrey; "Famous Men of Today," Lawrence Curran; "The Mexican Situation," Raymond Harrington.

The Toboggan Club had a short meeting Wednesday afternoon. The committee reported that five toboggans had been ordered. The rules committee brought in the following report which was adopted: "The Toboggan Club shall consist of the members and teachers of the high school. The toboggans shall not be loaned, unless five members of the high school are to be in the party. An executive committee shall be elected to have charge. The following committee was elected, Mr. Saunders, Miss Fullington, Irene Davis.

Friday afternoon, Feb. 4, the following exercises were held in the high school:—Song, School; Latin poem, "Ode to Youth," Kathleen Foster; German poem, "The Fir Tree," Thelma Dickson; French poem, "The Little Feggar," Mable Osborne; Old English selection from the Prologue to the Canterbury Tales, Hilary Sloan; Modern Slang, Doris Foster; piano solo, Pauline Parlin; demonstration of an algebra problem, Bernard Petrie; humorous reading, Clifford Stevens; extemporaneous story, Ralph McKelvey; piano solo, Ruth Foster; debate by seventh grade on the subject "Resolved, that the United States could not have secured their independence without the aid of France." The speakers for the affirmative were Ruth Finnegan and Bernadine Sargent; for the negative, Darrell Waterman and Irwin Emery.

What Children Need Now.

In spite of the best care mothers can give them this weather brings sickness to many children. Mrs. T. Neureur, Eau Claire, Wis., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar cured my boy of a severe attack of croup after other remedies had failed. It is a wonderful remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough." It stops lagrippe coughs.
J. W. THURSTON, Island Pond.

The funeral of Amable Petieau, age 72 years, who died of pneumonia at the home of his son, Arthur Petieau, on Railroad street, last Monday was held Wednesday at the Catholic church, St. James the Greater, Rev. C. D. Trotter officiating.

The following officers for Ross Encampment, No. 4, I. O. O. F., were installed last Tuesday night by E. J. Maxwell, District Deputy: Grand Patriarch, A. P. Drown; C. P., D. E. Allbee; H. P., E. J. Parsons; S. W., L. F. Jones; Scribe, J. W. Thurston, Treas.

"The Millionaire Paupers," a three reel feature will be shown at the opera house Monday, together with "Tears and Sunshine," a one reel drama, and "The Markswoman," featuring Adele Lane. Only one show, starting at 8 o'clock, after which there will be dancing with good music in attendance. No show Tuesday night.

The house owned by Dale & Sweeney on Back street, occupied by Ed White, was badly damaged by fire and water Thursday afternoon, Feb. 3d. The fire caught from a stovepipe which passed through the second floor. The damage to the furniture and house furnishings was small, the spectators and firemen being able to remove the most of them from the building.

The employees of the Grand Trunk Railway and the people of Island Pond are invited to attend a Travelogue on Western Canada given by R. C. W. Lett, tourist and colonization agent for the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, at the Y. M. C. A. hall Monday, Feb. 14th, commencing at 8:15. Mr. Lett's interesting talk on Western Canada will be illustrated by moving pictures and stereopticon views. All are urged to attend, the admission being free.

W. C. T. U. Notes.

Friday, the 4th, the young People's Branch of the W. C. T. U. met for their regular communication at the home of Mrs. Fred Boyce. After the dispatch of necessary business and mutual enjoyment of excellent refreshments and a well rendered program, all present resolved themselves into a committee of the whole for the initiation of new members. Four candidates, Marjorie Forbes, Elmer Hiltz, Miss Fullington, and Mr. Saunders humbly submitted to the atrocities of "our good young people." A motion to adjourn was speedily recorded by the initiates and the gathering quickly dispersed in order.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to express my thanks to the Island Pond Fire Department, the Grand Trunk Fire Department, and also the outsiders who helped so ably in removing my household goods and extinguishing the fire at my home last Thursday with so little loss.

ED WHITE AND FAMILY.

FOR SALE:—Five-year-old Morgan mare sired by the Darling horse at Lyndonville; good driver. Apply to E. E. DAVIS.

The Passumpsic Telephone Company recently installed telephones for the following parties:—A. M. Williams, Alex Stott, W. J. Rooney, C. W. Kittredge, Geo. A. Bennett, Tom Hinton, Jerry King and Andrew Dion.

E. E. Coombs, manager of the Oscar Holway Co., of Auburn, Me., was in town last week making arrangements for the storing and transfer of grain, flour and feed, in which they are dealers. Arrangements were also made so the local dealers could get these products at the local warehouse through Frank Paquette, jr.

On Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock, Mrs. Effie R. Lougee of Island Pond was married to Mr. Wilmer Renal Elliott, in the presence of a few guests, by Rev. G. H. Bennett, rector of Christ church. Both bride and groom are well known and have resided in Island Pond some years. They have the congratulations of a host of friends who wish them a happy life. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride on Derby street.

The dainty, charming and most famous motion picture star, Mary Pickford, in "Caprice," will be shown at the opera house Wednesday, Feb. 16, supported by Ernest Truax and Owen Moore, produced by the Famous Players Film Co., a Paramount feature. "Caprice" shows Miss Pickford at her best, a sweet play, proving love levels all, with an echo of the hills mingled with the voice of the city. There was something so charming about her stoic courage that Jack's heart went out to her—and never quite returned, and she will surely capture yours if you see "Caprice," with her dainty and charming manner, which no other person has been able to show on the photoplay screen. Only one show at eight p.m. Prices 10 and 20 cents.

When Helgoland Was British.
In the time of the Napoleonic wars, Helgoland was used as a drill ground for British soldiers.

Matter of Argument.
If you don't agree with a man as to the way to have peace he immediately accuses you of wanting war.

Ready for Him.
"Tomorrow, gentlemen," said the professor in a lecture on taking notes, "I will bring in my cards and show you my card system." Voice: "O. K., doc. Fetch some chips and we'll have a regular party."—Pennsylvania Punch Bowl.
